2 of 2 review helpful A sweet lollipop of a memoir By cynthia ashworth I went into this book expecting more Hollywood dirt and dish but she won me over nonetheless I DO know what I know her from lots of TV and movies plus the funny new Sprint Family campaign and like her even more now This series of essays and stories from her life was funny touching and she has a great voice that completely translates to the page This is Judy Greer's story from her self described childhood as "Ugly" in suburban Detroit Michigan to trying out for drama school to get even with her frenemy and then breaking into movies as the ultimate best friend Judy is a refreshingly honest self deprecating and totally relatable guide to Hollywood life speaking candidly about what it's really like to shoot on location to go to the Oscars and to feel like you're a big star Booklist Greer who has had a good deal of success as a working actress in movies including 13 Going on 30 and The Wedding Planner as well as a memorable recurring role in the TV series Arrested Development
