0 of 0 review helpful Crossing the Cultural Divide By Fremont Williams A humorous yet poignant account of growing up Iranian American in a White majority culture and trying to find her place in it The author even identifies with African Americans since they are a minority group set apart from White privilege. Humor turns out to be a good coping mechanism in navigating these cultural waters and she is like an Ambassador. From the acclaimed writer/director and star of the hit documentary The Muslims are Coming comes a memoir in essays about growing up Iranian American in a post 9/11 world and the power of comedy to combat racism. Negin Farsad is an Iranian American Muslim female stand-up comedian who believes she can change the world through jokes. And yes, sometimes that includes fart jokes. In this candid and uproarious book, Farsad shares her personal experiences. gro This book is more than funny; it's on David Sedaris' level first class perfect fucking hilarious funny. I laughed so hard I made a spectacle of myself. Julia Sweeney Comedian, Writer, and former SNL cast member. A hilarious and per
