0 of 0 review helpful stitches By runner27 I treat myself on occasion and others when I am in the mood with Mr Keillor s hilarious stories from his wonderful imaginary home town of Lake Wobegon The nostalgic tales are told in such a way as to draw one into the town its people and its past and present For anyone with a sense of humor I would highly recommend listening to this box set find out why all the women are The latest in a line of bestselling collections that began with News from Lake Wobegon this set selects monologues from four years 1999 2002 of live radio programs Some were broadcast from the Fitzgerald Theatre the show s St Paul home Others were recorded on the road in Dublin Pasadena Grand Forks and other exotic places From Publishers Weekly Those who love Keillor's long running radio broadcast A Prairie Home Companion will cherish this collection of stories harvested from shows aired between 1999 and 2003 The hushed intensity of Keillor's voice lulls listeners into a world
