Lost in the Andes is perhaps Barks best known story also one of his best. The first in a historic series of books collecting the comic book stories of "The Good Duck Artist" Carl Barks. Donald Duck and Uncle Scrooge comics are considered among the greatest artistic and storytelling achievements in the history of the medium. After serving a stint at the Walt Disney studios as an in-betweener and a gag man, Barks began drawing the comic book adventures of Donald Duck in 1942. He quickly said, "A priceless part of our literary heritage." George Lucas said, "Mr. Barks taught me that comics could be high art and I consider his work to be the best storytelling I've experienced in any form."
